

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 4, 1895.

Did you see the moon in eclipse last night?

Miss Rutha Koss has gone to Atlanta to attend school.

Last Saturday was the ninth anniversary of the great earthquake.

A. H. Osborne offers a lot of machinery for sale. See advertisement.

A Georgia paper is in favor of a ratio of 16 to 100 this year to last year.

Labor day was not observed in Anderson—not even by the dispensary.

The annual statement of the City Clerk and Treasurer is published this week.

The stock show at Hones Path on the 15th inst. promise to be a big success.

Mr. W. J. Ligon and son, Temple, have gone to Spartanburg to spend a few days.

Miss Mamie Fant, of Newberry, is in the city visiting her friend, Miss Mamie Webb.

There is a horrible rumor that women's sleeves will be larger the coming season.

August gave us some of the hottest weather this section has ever experienced.

Don't fail to take one or more shares of stock in the new cotton mill. It will pay you.

Mrs. H. M. Danwoody and her bright little boy left for their home in Atlanta last week.

See an early catch of rice for your cow, and you will have plenty of sweet milk all winter.

Prof. T. W. Gary, of Newberry, is spending a few days in the city, on his way to Florida.

Miss Lizzie Kessie spent a few days last week in Belton with her friend, Miss Malle Gier.

Miss Annie Bonham, of Columbia, is in the city visiting the family of her brother, Gen. M. L. Bonham.

Messrs. Arthur and Fred Richardson, of Hartwell, Ga., visited relatives in this section the past week.

Mrs. David G. Baldwin, three children and a nurse, of New Orleans, are registered at the Hotel Chiguala.

Mr. W. J. Smith, of Wallahalla, has accepted a position as salesman in the store of Dean, Ratliff & Co.

Rev. B. J. Wilson, of Abbeville, preached in the Presbyterian Church last Sunday in the presence of the pulpit.

Mr. Joel G. Key has returned to Darlington, S. C., where he will buy cotton through the coming season.

Messrs. Roy and Ethel Nance have gone to Bloomsburg, Pa., to enter the Pennsylvania State Normal College.

Mr. Lee Balentine is now clerking for D. C. Brown & Bro., and will be glad for his friends to give him a call.

Mr. C. Frank Bolt is now clerking for J. A. Austin & Co., and will be delighted to serve his friends at any time.

Mrs. E. H. Shanks, of Pendleton, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. E. E. Moore, on Greenville street.

The cotton pickers will soon be in demand. The price paid pickers will be about 35 cents per hundred pounds.

Miss Selma Wright and Miss Annie Strickland, of the Craytonville section, are spending a few days in the city.

Anderson will be a live market for cotton seed this fall. Bring your seed here if you want to get the best price for your seed.

Rev. J. J. Neville and wife are now occupying rooms in the new hotel at the corner of Main and River streets.

Mr. W. J. Mahaffey, one of our clever Cedar Grove correspondents, has moved to Pelzer, where he has secured employment.

Mr. W. P. King has accepted a position in the store of B. O. Evans & Co. and will be glad to have his friends call and see him.

If you want to buy shoes, it will pay you to read carefully what the Yates Shoe Co. say in their new advertisement this week.

An old gentleman, whose second crop of Irish potatoes is not very promising, says he planted them in the wrong time of the season.

Elberton (Ga.) Star: "Miss Annie Masters, from Anderson County, S. C., is the guest of Miss Janie Mattox, on Heart street."

Miss Selma Wright, a popular and attractive young lady, of Oration, has been visiting her friend, Miss Sigie Newell, in Hopedale.

The United States Court, opened its fall term at Greenville yesterday. The criminal business, it is said, will consume three or four weeks.

Rev. Dr. Pearson is conducting a very successful revival at Toccoa, Ga. It has been suggested that he be invited to visit Anderson again.

Mrs. W. C. Little, of Euton, Ga., is now in the city visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. V. H. Nason, and will spend some time here.

Mr. T. B. Crayton is now a salesman for U. E. Seybt. He invites his friends to call and see him when they need anything in the dry goods line.

It gives us pleasure to announce that our young friend, Mr. Charlie Hall, who has been quite ill for several weeks, is now convalescing.

Gen. M. L. Bonham left yesterday for Spartanburg on professional business, and will spend a few days at Glenn Springs before returning home.

The Confederate veterans in and around Pelzer have organized a camp. The name chosen was Camp Crittenden, with Capt. F. J. Poole as commander.

Persons who have anything they desire to place in the State exhibit at the Atlanta Exposition should send them at once to the store of McCully & Cathart.

The Messrs. Evans Bros., of Anderson, have purchased the drug store of Mr. W. A. Davies at Pelzer. Mr. W. M. Evans has gone over there to take charge of the business.

Our young friend, Master Frank McCall, is now clerking at the Evans Pharmacy. Frank is a bright, clever boy, and is not afraid of work. Such boys always succeed in life.

Miss Mittie Tribble has returned home from a pleasant visit to Wallahalla, and is accompanied by her friend, Miss Fannie Maxwell, who will spend a few weeks in Anderson.

Mr. Neb. L. Fant, the efficient and clever postal clerk who runs between Belton and Wallahalla, has gone to Chicago as a delegate from South Carolina to the National Postal Clerks' Association.

Married, on Thursday, August 27, 1895, at the residence of the bride's brother, Mr. B. A. Davis, at Fair Play, by Rev. T. H. Garrett, Mr. Daniel E. Carlisle, of this city, and Miss Mamie Davis.

Messrs. Brownlee & Vandiver are now stationed out in their new quarters on Granite Row, at the old stand of Kay & Baker. Their friends and customers should not forget that they have moved.

Mr. A. W. Moore, of Florence, is in the city taking subscriptions for "The Confederate Soldier in the Civil War," one of the most interesting and valuable publications that has ever been issued.

Mrs. G. A. Wagner, accompanied by her two charming daughters, Misses Lillie and Marie, is visiting her parents near this city. Her visit is a source of much pleasure to her many old friends.

A baby show is the next entertainment for Anderson. It will take place on Friday, 15th inst., and will be for the benefit of the Confederate Monument fund. Full particulars will be given in our next issue.

Messrs. Russell & Breazeale are moving to one of the new storehouses of the new block now being finished on North Main street. Their friends and customers should bear this in mind, and give them a call.

The dwelling house of Gen. M. C. Dickson, near Pendleton, was destroyed by fire last Wednesday night. Soberly and bravely the furniture was saved. It is not known how the fire originated. There was no insurance.

Pickens Journal: "Rev. D. E. Frierson is helping Dr. Riley conduct his meeting at the Presbyterian Church this week. He is delivering addresses, and preaching to the masses, and his preaching should be productive of much good."

The prospects for a large business in Anderson this fall are very encouraging. Our merchants are meeting for them. They are going to sell goods cheaper than ever before, and Anderson will continue to be the best cotton market in the State.

Albert, the 11-year-old son of Mr. F. Kowalski, died at his home in Hopewell Township last Saturday after a brief illness. The remains were interred in the Mt. Zion Churchyard on Monday, Rev. B. F. Fant conducting the funeral services.

Miss Alma Carver, who has been visiting the family of Mr. W. S. Lee of this city, left Saturday for Orangeburg, where she will spend a month. Before returning home Miss Carver won many friends in Anderson, who regretted to see her leave.

That popular teacher, Miss Lenora Hubbard, is thoroughly convinced that advertising in the INTELLIGENCER pays. In last Wednesday's paper she advertised for 25 pupils for her school and by 12 o'clock the day following she had received and enrolled 20.

Thos. Dixon, a young man 17 years of age, died last Monday night at the residence of Mr. J. A. Alewine, near this place, of blood poisoning. His death was due to a scratch from a cat's claw. He was buried at last night yesterday.—Hones Path Chronicle.

The Abbeville Baptist Association will hold its annual session at Lowndesville on the 15th, 16th and 17th inst. T. B. & W. C. will sell round-trip tickets for the occasion on the 15th and 17th, good to return on any train until September 23rd, at rate of five cents per mile.

McCully & Cathart want to sell your baggage and trunks. They have bargains in all varieties, new and old, by the bale, by the roll and by the pattern, and the largest stock they have ever carried. Call for their new advertisement next week, but in the meantime give them a call.

At a meeting of the Board of County Commissioners yesterday Mr. C. B. Gilmer tendered his resignation as Board member, which was accepted, and Mr. W. T. McGregor, the chain gang guard, was elected his successor. Mr. Claude Skelton was elected to succeed Mr. McGregor as guard.

Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Edwards, of Rioverde, Mexico, arrived in Anderson last Wednesday. They will spend a few days in several months in this section with relatives. They were not expected until the latter part of the month, but the arrival of Mrs. Edwards' sister, Mrs. Flossie Brown, hastened their coming.

A copy of Southern Progress, a neatly gotten up little magazine, containing a mass of interesting news, including railroad construction, real estate, finance, and insurance in the Southern States, has been received at this office. The magazine is published in English, and is a Southern Progress Publishing Co. any.

Our young friend, R. W. Simpson, Jr., of Pendleton, has gone to Columbia to accept a position on the local staff of the Evening Post. He is a bright, energetic young man, and will be glad for his friends to give him a call.

Mr. C. Frank Bolt is now clerking for J. A. Austin & Co., and will be delighted to serve his friends at any time.

Mrs. E. H. Shanks, of Pendleton, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. E. E. Moore, on Greenville street.

The cotton pickers will soon be in demand. The price paid pickers will be about 35 cents per hundred pounds.

Miss Selma Wright and Miss Annie Strickland, of the Craytonville section, are spending a few days in the city.

Anderson will be a live market for cotton seed this fall. Bring your seed here if you want to get the best price for your seed.

Rev. J. J. Neville and wife are now occupying rooms in the new hotel at the corner of Main and River streets.

Mr. W. J. Mahaffey, one of our clever Cedar Grove correspondents, has moved to Pelzer, where he has secured employment.

Mr. W. P. King has accepted a position in the store of B. O. Evans & Co. and will be glad to have his friends call and see him.

If you want to buy shoes, it will pay you to read carefully what the Yates Shoe Co. say in their new advertisement this week.

An old gentleman, whose second crop of Irish potatoes is not very promising, says he planted them in the wrong time of the season.

Elberton (Ga.) Star: "Miss Annie Masters, from Anderson County, S. C., is the guest of Miss Janie Mattox, on Heart street."

Miss Selma Wright, a popular and attractive young lady, of Oration, has been visiting her friend, Miss Sigie Newell, in Hopedale.

The United States Court, opened its fall term at Greenville yesterday. The criminal business, it is said, will consume three or four weeks.

Rev. Dr. Pearson is conducting a very successful revival at Toccoa, Ga. It has been suggested that he be invited to visit Anderson again.

Mrs. W. C. Little, of Euton, Ga., is now in the city visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. V. H. Nason, and will spend some time here.

Mr. T. B. Crayton is now a salesman for U. E. Seybt. He invites his friends to call and see him when they need anything in the dry goods line.

It gives us pleasure to announce that our young friend, Mr. Charlie Hall, who has been quite ill for several weeks, is now convalescing.

Gen. M. L. Bonham left yesterday for Spartanburg on professional business, and will spend a few days at Glenn Springs before returning home.

The Confederate veterans in and around Pelzer have organized a camp. The name chosen was Camp Crittenden, with Capt. F. J. Poole as commander.

Persons who have anything they desire to place in the State exhibit at the Atlanta Exposition should send them at once to the store of McCully & Cathart.

The Messrs. Evans Bros., of Anderson, have purchased the drug store of Mr. W. A. Davies at Pelzer. Mr. W. M. Evans has gone over there to take charge of the business.

Our young friend, Master Frank McCall, is now clerking at the Evans Pharmacy. Frank is a bright, clever boy, and is not afraid of work. Such boys always succeed in life.

Miss Mittie Tribble has returned home from a pleasant visit to Wallahalla, and is accompanied by her friend, Miss Fannie Maxwell, who will spend a few weeks in Anderson.

Mr. Neb. L. Fant, the efficient and clever postal clerk who runs between Belton and Wallahalla, has gone to Chicago as a delegate from South Carolina to the National Postal Clerks' Association.

Married, on Thursday, August 27, 1895, at the residence of the bride's brother, Mr. B. A. Davis, at Fair Play, by Rev. T. H. Garrett, Mr. Daniel E. Carlisle, of this city, and Miss Mamie Davis.

Messrs. Brownlee & Vandiver are now stationed out in their new quarters on Granite Row, at the old stand of Kay & Baker. Their friends and customers should not forget that they have moved.

Mr. A. W. Moore, of Florence, is in the city taking subscriptions for "The Confederate Soldier in the Civil War," one of the most interesting and valuable publications that has ever been issued.

Mrs. G. A. Wagner, accompanied by her two charming daughters, Misses Lillie and Marie, is visiting her parents near this city. Her visit is a source of much pleasure to her many old friends.

A baby show is the next entertainment for Anderson. It will take place on Friday, 15th inst., and will be for the benefit of the Confederate Monument fund. Full particulars will be given in our next issue.

Messrs. Russell & Breazeale are moving to one of the new storehouses of the new block now being finished on North Main street. Their friends and customers should bear this in mind, and give them a call.

The dwelling house of Gen. M. C. Dickson, near Pendleton, was destroyed by fire last Wednesday night. Soberly and bravely the furniture was saved. It is not known how the fire originated. There was no insurance.

deservedly popular young ladies, and Mr. Newton and Mr. Holcomb are numbered among our most worthy young men. Many friends extend their best wishes and fervent prayers for the happiness and prosperity of both couples. These young people have many friends in Anderson County who will join the Intellectual Union in extending congratulations.

Our young townsman, Fred B. Maxwell, is making a reputation as a bicycle rider. The Savannah News, of a few days ago, says: "Among the fast riders at the recent Jacksonville meet who attracted universal notice by his fine riding and fast speed, was Fred B. Maxwell, of Columbia, S. C. He was in three races and secured two first and one second prize. He rode the Hufferdler, the South Florida rider, once, and that was in the two-mile lap race, in which he secured fourteen points to Hufferdler's fifteen. Good judges then stated that had Maxwell started his sport a little earlier he would have beaten the Orlando rider last night. His friends in Jacksonville think he can out-ride the Orlando boy and they have issued a challenge to Hufferdler to ride a mile on the Jacksonville track before the 10th of September. As Mr. Maxwell has to return home by that time, the Savannah riders met, and Maxwell, all were pleased with him. He and his mate, W. T. Mizson, paced the Adams-Hufferdler match race, and the Savannah race for the one-mile track record. If Hufferdler accepts the challenge it will be a very interesting race, and the Savannah News says that from Jacksonville last night's statement of acceptance of challenge by Hufferdler received, and September 7th next, confident he can defeat the Orlando crank."

Death of Mr. B. F. Moss.

It is our sad duty again to chronicle the death of another worthy and substantial citizen of Anderson, Mr. Benjamin F. Moss, who died at his home in this city last Monday night, at 5 o'clock. He was taken ill about five weeks ago, but it was only a few days preceding his death that his condition was considered serious, and the announcement of his death was a great shock to many of his friends. His disease was intermitting fever. He was a man of about 50 years of age, and was a native of Georgia. He was a member of the Methodist Church, and was a very successful business man. He was a building contractor, and owned an extensive brickyard. He was a very successful business man, and was a member of the Methodist Church. He was a very successful business man, and was a member of the Methodist Church.

Mr. Moss was born and reared in Habersham County, Ga., and had been living in Anderson for several years. He was a very successful business man, and was a member of the Methodist Church. He was a very successful business man, and was a member of the Methodist Church. He was a very successful business man, and was a member of the Methodist Church.

In 1879 the deceased married Miss Annie Gentry, who with his venerable mother, three brothers and two sisters survive him. His mother was notified by a telegram on Monday of his death, but she did not reach Anderson until 11 o'clock this morning. The funeral services will be held at the Methodist Church this afternoon at 4 o'clock, and will be conducted by Rev. G. P. Watson, after which the remains will be interred in Silver Brook Cemetery.

We have known the deceased intimately ever since he first came to Anderson, and in every relation of life he was a most successful citizen. He possessed a genial, social disposition, and was very popular with all of his friends and acquaintances. He was a very successful business man, and was a member of the Methodist Church. He was a very successful business man, and was a member of the Methodist Church.

He was a noble hearted man, and never turned a deaf ear to the needy and afflicted. Though he had never made a public profession of religion, he was a liberal contributor to the Church and attended its services regularly. He was strictly upright and honorable in all his dealings, and was a very successful business man. He was a very successful business man, and was a member of the Methodist Church.

He was a very successful business man, and was a member of the Methodist Church. He was a very successful business man, and was a member of the Methodist Church. He was a very successful business man, and was a member of the Methodist Church. He was a very successful business man, and was a member of the Methodist Church.

Hones Path News.

HONES PATH, S. C., September 3-d.

Cotton picking is now in order. Remember the C. O. Show on the 13th.

Everybody come. Miss Odell Harper, of Woodville, is visiting her cousin, Miss Lillie Horton.

Mr. F. J. Poole, of Pelzer, is in the city. He is a very successful business man, and was a member of the Methodist Church.

One of our young ladies says that she would like to see the stockholders of the C. O. Show on the 13th.

W. F. Clinkscale has been putting in the last two or three weeks overhauling his machinery, preparatory to the ginning season.

The negro picnic, five miles below here, last Friday, a negro was shot and the indications were that he would die, but he will be well in a few days.

Three road hands were brought before Squire Trussell Friday for not working the roads after being duly warned. The fine was five dollars or 15 days.

The roof of the school house is being painted, and the well on the church ground is being repaired.

Miss Mattie Cann, from Abbeville, is visiting her friends here. She is a very successful business man, and was a member of the Methodist Church.

September 1st always brings a change for the better in the weather, and it is no exception this year. Call around boys, and get her name.

R. P. Jamison lost a fine colt last Thursday.

W. F. Clinkscale has been putting in the last two or three weeks overhauling his machinery, preparatory to the ginning season.

The negro picnic, five miles below here, last Friday, a negro was shot and the indications were that he would die, but he will be well in a few days.

Three road hands were brought before Squire Trussell Friday for not working the roads after being duly warned. The fine was five dollars or 15 days.

The roof of the school house is being painted, and the well on the church ground is being repaired.

Miss Mattie Cann, from Abbeville, is visiting her friends here. She is a very successful business man, and was a member of the Methodist Church.

September 1st always brings a change for the better in the weather, and it is no exception this year. Call around boys, and get her name.

R. P. Jamison lost a fine colt last Thursday.

W. F. Clinkscale has been putting in the last two or three weeks overhauling his machinery, preparatory to the ginning season.

The negro picnic, five miles below here, last Friday, a negro was shot and the indications were that he would die, but he will be well in a few days.

Three road hands were brought before Squire Trussell Friday for not working the roads after being duly warned. The fine was five dollars or 15 days.

The roof of the school house is being painted, and the well on the church ground is being repaired.

Miss Mattie Cann, from Abbeville, is visiting her friends here. She is a very successful business man, and was a member of the Methodist Church.

September 1st always brings a change for the better in the weather, and it is no exception this year. Call around boys, and get her name.

R. P. Jamison lost a fine colt last Thursday.

W. F. Clinkscale has been putting in the last two or three weeks overhauling his machinery, preparatory to the ginning season.

The negro picnic, five miles below here, last Friday, a negro was shot and the indications were that he would die, but he will be well in a few days.

Three road hands were brought before Squire Trussell Friday for not working the roads after being duly warned. The fine was five dollars or 15 days.

The roof of the school house is being painted, and the well on the church ground is being repaired.

Miss Mattie Cann, from Abbeville, is visiting her friends here. She is a very successful business man, and was a member of the Methodist Church.

September 1st always brings a change for the better in the weather, and it is no exception this year. Call around boys, and get her name.

R. P. Jamison lost a fine colt last Thursday.

W. F. Clinkscale has been putting in the last two or three weeks overhauling his machinery, preparatory to the ginning season.

The negro picnic, five miles below here, last Friday, a negro was shot and the indications were that he would die, but he will be well in a few days.

Three road hands were brought before Squire Trussell Friday for not working the roads after being duly warned. The fine was five dollars or 15 days.

The roof of the school house is being painted, and the well on the church ground is being repaired.

Miss Mattie Cann, from Abbeville, is visiting her friends here. She is a very successful business man, and was a member of the Methodist Church.

September 1st always brings a change for the better in the weather, and it is no exception this year. Call around boys, and get her name.

R. P. Jamison lost a fine colt last Thursday.

W. F. Clinkscale has been putting in the last two or three weeks overhauling his machinery, preparatory to the ginning season.

Local Breezes from Brushy Creek.

The crop outlook hereabouts is pretty fair, and our people generally are in pretty high spirits.

Miss Lella Grier, of Williamson, is spending awhile with relatives in Brushy Creek.

Dr. A. C. Tripp, who has been on the sick list for the last few days, is now to be out again.

Messrs. J. W. Wyatt & Co., having outgrown their old quarters are building a new store room at their place.

Mr. Miles M. Merritt is building a nice two-story dwelling, which will soon be completed.

Cadet L. C. Richardson, of the U. S. Naval Academy, is visiting his relatives and friends in Brushy Creek this week.

He and Mr. Hufferdler, the South Florida rider, once, and that was in the two-mile lap race, in which he secured fourteen points to Hufferdler's fifteen.

Good judges then stated that had Maxwell started his sport a little earlier he would have beaten the Orlando rider last night.

His friends in Jacksonville think he can out-ride the Orlando boy and they have issued a challenge to Hufferdler to ride a mile on the Jacksonville track before the 10th of September.

As Mr. Maxwell has to return home by that time, the Savannah riders met, and Maxwell, all were pleased with him. He and his mate, W. T. Mizson, paced the Adams-Hufferdler match race, and the Savannah race for the one-mile track record.

If Hufferdler accepts the challenge it will be a very interesting race, and the Savannah News says that from Jacksonville last night's statement of acceptance of challenge by Hufferdler received, and September 7th next, confident he can defeat the Orlando crank.

He was a very successful business man, and was a member of the Methodist Church. He was a very successful business man, and was a member of the Methodist Church.

He was a very successful business man, and was a member of the Methodist Church. He was a very successful business man, and was a member of the Methodist Church.

He was a very successful business man, and was a member of the Methodist Church. He was a very successful business man, and was a member of the Methodist Church.

He was a very successful business man, and was a member of the Methodist Church. He was a very successful business man, and was a member of the Methodist Church.

He was a very successful business man, and was a member of the Methodist Church. He was a very successful business man, and was a member of the Methodist Church.

He was a very successful business man, and was a member of the Methodist Church. He was a very successful business man, and was a member of the Methodist Church.

He was a very successful business man, and was a member of the Methodist Church. He was a very successful business man, and was a member of the Methodist Church.

He was a very successful business man, and was a member of the